

Penny Y. Peterson

California State University, Long Beach
Department of Science Education
1250 Bellflower Blvd.
Long Beach, CA 90840
(562) 985-4801
ppeterso@csulb.edu

EXPERIENCE

- | | |
|--|--------------|
| Science Specialist (K-5), Harte Elementary School
Long Beach Unified School District, Long Beach
Responsible for teaching K-5 students, providing staff development, coordinating science fair, and developing and sequencing curriculum. | 2001-Present |
| Part-Time Faculty
CSULB Science Education Department, Long Beach
Presently teaching SCED 475. Previously taught SCED 401. | 2005-Present |
| Teacher (K-5)
Long Beach Unified School District, Long Beach
Science Lead Teacher; Science Fair Chairperson; Master Teacher;
New Teacher B.T.S.A. Coach | 1996-2001 |
| Education Specialist
Inland Empire West Resource Conservation District, Ontario
Coordinated San Bernardino County's Stormwater Pollution Education Program; coordinated "Nature Discovery," an outdoor field trip program for K-6 grade students. | 1994-1996 |

EDUCATION/CERTIFICATIONS

- | | |
|---|-----------|
| Masters of Curriculum & Instruction
California State University, Long Beach | 2000-2002 |
| California Clear Teaching Credential, CLAD
California State University, Long Beach | 1996-1998 |
| Bachelors of Environmental Studies & Geography
California State University, San Bernardino | 1990-1994 |

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- NSTA (National Science Teachers Association)
- CSTA (California Science Teachers Association)
- CTA (California Teachers Association)